

Families May Apply for Housing Through Habitat for Humanity Program

StaffordCountySun.com

August 24, 2009

FREDERICKSBURG — Families will be given the opportunity to apply for housing through The Greater Fredericksburg Habitat for Humanity's program after attending a Family Selection Orientation.

The Family Selection Orientation will take place Aug. 29 at 10 a.m. at the Bragg Hill Family Life Center, located at 400 Bragg Hill Drive in Fredericksburg.

All applicants must have lived in the Greater Fredericksburg area for at least one year immediately prior to applying for a Habitat house. For the purposes of determining residency, included are the counties of King George, Spotsylvania and Stafford as well as the City of Fredericksburg.

The Greater Fredericksburg Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian housing ministry that seeks to eliminate substandard housing by partnering with low-income families to build or renovate simple, decent, affordable housing that is sold to the family without profit or interest.

— Submitted by Bobbie Wiggin, orientation coordinator
The Greater Fredericksburg Habitat for Humanity