About the Virginia Housing Coalition

The Virginia Housing Coalition (VHC), founded in 1981, is a membership-based, state-wide organization dedicated specifically to bringing more quality, affordable housing to Virginia families. The VHC is dedicated to a strong, bi-partisan approach to comprehensive community and economic development. The organization is comprised of a wide range of businesses and organizations interested in fostering entrepreneurial, mission-oriented results in the affordable housing arena. Members include: community development corporations, local housing agencies, housing developers, financial institutions, legal and accounting firms, interested individuals and others.
